

ADDITIONAL REPORTS

Any of the following conditions should be immediately reported to the VTS:

1. any defect or discrepancy in an aid to navigation
2. involvement in a marine casualty
3. any pollution incident
4. any condition that may impair a vessels ability to safely navigate or manoeuvre

Examples

- a) defective propulsion machinery, steering gear, navigation equipment, communication equipment
  - b) fire, explosion, grounding, leaking, illness of a person, or manning shortage
  - c) cargo arrangement, trim, loaded condition, underkeel clearance
  - d) deficiencies in respect to current nautical charts and publications
5. any hazard to navigation
  6. adverse weather condition including any reduction in visibility

VIA: Appropriate VHF Sector frequency

SERVICES OFFERED

1. SAN FRANCISCO TRAFFIC issues advisories and provides on request, the following information:

- a) traffic
- b) local weather
- c) aids to navigation status
- d) local harbour operations such as ferry routes or dredging
- e) anchorage availability

Additional information is available on request.

VIA: Appropriate VHF Sector frequency

2. RADAR AND CCTV SURVEILLANCE

Portions of the San Francisco VTS area are covered by Radar and CCTV surveillance.

3. SAN FRANCISCO VTS CENTRE

Direct Tel: (415) 556 2760

Fax: (415) 556 6851

4. ASSOCIATED SERVICES

Emergency: 911 / VHF CH 16

NOTE: VTS Users Manual may be obtained by calling SAN FRANCISCO VTS CENTRE